Depart this morning and take Forster Street/ Harvey Taylor Bridge Bypass and Cumberland Boulevard to US-15 S/N 32nd Street in Camp Hill. Take I-76 W and I-80 W to E 14th Street in Cleveland.

While in Cleveland, it is a must for any music fan to visit the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. Learn about the origins of rock & roll, through the artists from the gospel, blues, R&B and country genres. From there, see everything from the music scenes in New York and Detroit, to the British influence during the 60s. With memorabilia from famous and your favourite artists, including a large Beatles collection, you will leave with a higher appreciation of music.

The Cleveland Museum of Art holds more than 45,000 works of art from around the world, with notable collections from Egypt and Asia. Maintaining a free admission in order to educate everyone about art, take your time to explore the many artworks of the museum.

Distance: 330 miles, 5 hours.

Stay: Euclid Beach.

Day 3. Cleveland, OH to Chicago, IL

Depart this morning and follow the I-90 W to W Cermak Road in Chicago.

For an afternoon walk or picnic, visit Millennium Park located in the heart of the city. With hundreds of free arts and cultural events, combined with innovative and interesting architecture, you could spend hours here walking around.

Opened in 1916, the Navy Pier was once a shipping and recreational facility. Today it has over 50 acres of parks, gardens, shops, restaurants and attractions. Have some dinner at Bubba Gump Shrimp Co., as seen in Forest Gump, or get lost in the Funhouse Maze and then go ice-skating. There is something for everyone here.

Distance: 343 miles, 5 hours 20 minutes.

Stay: Chicago Northwest KOA.

Day 4. Chicago, IL to Iowa City, IA

Depart this morning and continue to I-290 W. Take I-88 W and I-80 W to IA-1 S/N Dodge Street in Iowa City.

Catch a game of college football at the Kinnick Stadium. Home of the Iowa Hawkeyes, college football is one of America's favourite sports. Seating just over 70,000 people, get swept up in the passionate crowd and watch these top athletes compete for glory.

Along Iowa Avenue, between Clinton and Gilbert Street, you will find The Literary Walk. The walk celebrates authors who have a connection to Iowa, by placing their most famous quotes along the pathway. The authors you can see range from Mark Twain to Friedrich Nietzsche. Alongside the quotes are authors' biographies so you can learn about their connection to Iowa.

Distance: 246 miles, 3 hours 40 minutes.
